Re: Erik Perez

Mr. Perez has worked for me for the last 3 1/2 years as an independent contractor doing occasional graphic design of posters and web-ready designs for community and political events. Mr. Perez develops creative and eye-catching designs, even when the design must incorporate a large amount of information. We have received much positive feedback on the quality of his designs. He is easy to work with, even when the content must undergo changes through the design process. Mr. Perez has displayed a high degree of professionalism in our interactions. He goes the extra mile, and has even hand-delivered materials that were needed immediately. We have found him to be available, prompt and honest. We look forward to working with him in the future, and we would recommend him highly.

Sincerely,
